Hotelier testimonials

“We’ve been here for over 20 years! We help set up for banquets, meetings, dinner receptions and other events at the resort. Our team is made up of our very good friends, each with different strengths, and everyday is a new challenge. It really touches our hearts to see a new bride come in and enjoy her special day. We love our guests, and we love our leadership here too. They make our jobs enjoyable every day.”

Julio & Delva, Banquets

“I started working at the resort in January of 1996, so I’ve been here for almost 23 years. I work in retail, take care of our guests, and make sure the store looks presentable with fun and stylish displays. This is a huge part of my life, and I have a lot of memories from over the years. I’ve seen guests grow up from sitting in strollers to becoming young adults, and I love getting to interact with them each and every day. I feel like I’m in my second home.”

Maria S., Gift Shop

“It’s been over 20 years working here, can you believe that? I’m the Sales Coordinator and the Jayne of all trades. My role entails prepping special amenities for our guests, working with travel agents, and acting as the office cheerleader. We’re all one big family here, and I love getting to create special moments for our guests.”

Jayne M., Sales Coordinator

“I’ve been a server here at Breeze Ocean Kitchen since March of 2012. And I take care of everybody, making sure everyone wants to leave and come back time and time again. We’re like a family here. My fellow employees always put a smile on my face. And my most memorable moments are when we have a guest return and they remember my name.”

Patrick D., Breeze Ocean Kitchen

“It’s been over 10 years that I’ve been here, currently in a role as Group Sales Manager. I absolutely love coming to work everyday, showcasing the beautiful hotel to potential clients, highlighting group experiences and big product launches, and wining and dining as we foster great relationships here at Eau.”

Alison K., Group Sales Manager

“I’ve been here for almost 15 years. My day-to-day covers everything from banquets to restaurants, including creating new menus, decorating wedding cakes, enhancing guest experiences, and making sure all of the hoteliers have the ingredients that they need to succeed. My favorite part of this job is seeing my team members learn new things and grow. When they get into the swing of things, seeing their faces is my biggest pleasure.”
